

MASTER OF ARTS IN THE FIELD OF ASIAN STUDIES

The Sigur Center for Asian Studies at the Elliott School administers the master's program in Asian studies, offering students many valuable resources and opportunities. The program is directed by a large, renowned faculty whose expertise includes foreign affairs; security and policy; language and culture; economics; and the history of East, Southeast, and South Asia. The highly diverse and experienced faculty prepares students for careers in the public, private, and nonprofit sectors through rigorous coursework in political science, history, and international affairs. To supplement studies in Washington, DC, the Sigur Center also provides funding for summer language study and research projects in Asia.

Visit the program website (<https://elliott.gwu.edu/academics/graduate/asian-studies/>) for additional information.

ADMISSIONS

Admission deadline:	Fall: January 7th - Fellowship & Application Deadline
	Spring: October 1st - Fellowship & Application Deadline
	Applications for admission will continue to be accepted on a rolling basis after the fellowship deadlines have passed, but students will not be considered for fellowships.
Standardized test scores:	GRE and GMAT scores are not accepted and will not be considered in the review process. Please do not submit scores.
Recommendations required:	Two (2) letters are required. Applicants should submit one (1) academic letter from a professor and one (1) professional reference.
Prior academic records:	Transcripts are required from all colleges and universities attended, whether or not credit was earned, the program was completed, or the credit appears as transfer credit on another transcript. Unofficial transcripts from all colleges and universities attended should be uploaded to your online application. Official transcripts are required only of applicants who are offered admission and choose to enroll. If academic records are in a language other than English, English language translations must be provided. The English translations alone should be uploaded into the online application. Official transcripts and certified English translations will be required of applicants who are offered admission and choose to enroll.
Statement of purpose:	All applicants are required to submit an essay of approximately 500 words that answers one of the two questions below:

State your purpose in undertaking graduate study at the Elliott School. As part of your statement of purpose, describe your academic and research interests, career objectives, how a degree from the Elliott School will enable you to achieve your goals, and what unique skills, talents and/or perspectives you will bring to your program. Please be specific.

- OR -

Please discuss an issue of international importance you wish to address in your professional career. Please include how the Elliott School and the academic program to which you have applied will prepare you to address this global issue.

Additional requirements A resumé or curriculum vitae is required. Resumés/CVs must include dates of employment (if applicable) and date of degree conferral or expected degree conferral.

High intermediate coursework in a modern foreign language is required at the time of application.

Prerequisites: Academic coursework in an Asian language, which will prepare students to complete the program's language requirement*, must be shown at the time of application. This can be demonstrated by:

Study that is equal to four semesters of university-level coursework or equivalent. Completion of formal language training as part of employment (ex. Peace Corps, JET, etc.). Growing up in a household where the language is spoken.

*Students need to have a strong foundation in a foreign language before enrolling to be successful in completing the language requirement during the program.

International applicants only: International Applicants may be required to submit official English Language tests scores with their application. Please see the Elliott School's English Language Requirements for guidance on whether you need to take the TOEFL/IELTS/PTE. Please send official TOEFL scores to institution code 5246.

The minimum English Language Test Requirements can be found below:

Eligible for Admission & requires EAP Courses:

- IELTS- 7.0 overall score, no band score below 6.0
- TOEFL- 100 (internet test) 600 (paper test)
- PTE- 68

Eligible for Admission & Exempt from EAP Courses:

- IETLS- 7.0 overall score, no band score below 6.5
- TOEFL- 105 (internet test) 650 (paper test)
- PTE- 72

Spring applicants must receive at least these scores to be considered for admission.

Please review International Applicant Information carefully for details on required documents, earlier deadlines for applicants requiring an I-20 or DS-2019 from GW, and English language requirements.

Supporting documents not submitted online should be mailed to:

*Only specific topics that are determined by the program director to be relevant to the student's program of study may be used to fulfill this requirement. Any topic intended to be used for this requirement must be approved by the program director prior to enrollment. Consult the Schedule of Classes (<http://my.gwu.edu/mod/pws/>) for each semester's offerings. Topics courses not listed here may, with permission of the program director, be used to fulfill program requirements.

Additional information regarding skills courses (<https://elliott.gwu.edu/professional-skills-courses/>), the capstone (<https://elliott.gwu.edu/global-capstone/>), and the thesis (<https://elliott.gwu.edu/thesis/>) is available on the Elliott School website.

Language proficiency requirement

Students in the Asian studies program are required to demonstrate proficiency in a modern Asian language.

Students may demonstrate proficiency in Mandarin Chinese, Korean, or Japanese through one of the following methods:

1) Passing the oral and written proficiency exam administered by the Elliott School at the currently-required level of proficiency (<https://elliott.gwu.edu/foreign-language-proficiency-requirement/>). The Elliott School administers language proficiency examinations once in the fall and once in the spring semesters. Students should plan to take the language proficiency examination as soon as possible following their matriculation in the program. Students have three opportunities to pass the examination.

2) Earning a grade of B or higher in one of the following courses in the East Asian Languages and Literatures Department:

CHIN 3106

CHIN 4107

CHIN 4108

JAPN 3106

JAPN 4107

JAPN 4108

KOR 3106

KOR 4107

KOR 4108

Failure to pass the examination for a third time, or to receive a sufficient grade in one of the approved courses, results in dismissal from the program.

Students seeking to fulfill the language requirement using a language other than Mandarin Chinese, Korean, or Japanese should consult with their academic advisor or the Program Director.
